RACING AT HARLEM.

The off-day card offered by the Harlem management yesterday, coupled with the cool weather, kept the attendance down to the regulars. The sport was somewhat lifeless and save for the close finish in the last race all the winners took their respective races easily. The most important affair of the day was the fourth race, a dash of one mile and one hundred yards for four-year-olds and upward. Major Dixon, on the strength of his recent good showings, was thought to have the race at his mercy and was made an odds-on favorite, but the best he could do was to run second, the winner turning up in Dr. Stephens, skillfully ridden by Coburn. Dr. Stephens took command at flag fall, and, displaying much speed, remained in front all the way, winning as his rider pleased by three lengths from Major Dixon, which beat Searcher a half for second place. Major Dixon tired somewhat in the last eighth and Searcher was gradually wearing him down in the closing strides.

The day's opener, a dash of five furlongs for two-year-olds, resulted in a hollow victory for C. R. Ellison's Esher—Miss Hera colt, Lyman Hay. He showed keen speed throughout the race, leading from start to finish. He won by three and a half lengths easily from Mallory, which beat Lord Touchwood one length for second place. Blue Miracle ran a fair race and bears watching. San Sargassa showed a flash of early speed.

The second race, a dash of six and a half furlongs for all ages, was thought to be a "moral" for Headwater, but he ran a listless race, failing to finish inside the first three. Rag Tag, outrun by Georgie and Headwater in the first five and a half furlongs, moved up fast when well straightened for home, winning by three lengths easily from Rubus, which beat Georgie two for second place. Rubus appeared to have a good chance in the last sixteenth, but faltered perceptibly when challenged by the winner. Georgie, off flying, showed much speed and carried it much farther than usual. Headwater failed to respond under a vigorous ride in the last eighth and ran an unaccountably bad race.

Scotch Plaid took the third race, a dash of one mile and seventy yards, by courtesy of a disqualification. Mac Gyle won by a length, but in turning for home Coburn, who rode him, cut across Scotch Plaid causing the latter to pull up and lose several lengths. For the interference Mac Gyle was set back, Scotch Plaid being placed first. Silurian second and Rasselas third. Scotch Plaid tired slightly in the closing strides and would have lost second place to Silurian in another stride or two. Rasselas ran a good race and is ready to win when placed right. Limelight showed much speed and was right there up to the last eighth. Little Elkin, badly outrun the first six furlongs, closed with a splendid rush and is just on edge. Captain Gaines was pocketed several times throughout the race and ran far below his best form. He can do much better.

Philo took the fifth race, a five and one-half furlongs scramble for two-year-olds, by one and one-half lengths from Florestan, which beat Tangent five for second place. The last named led by a good margin until almost in the last sixteenth where he gave up the struggle when pressed by the winner. Florestan finished stoutly. Galba ran far below expectations and was never in the hunt. Vestia showed early speed.

An unwieldy field of twelve faced the barrier in the last race, a dash of one mile and seventy yards for four-year-olds and upward. Leo Newell was thought the best of by the talent and rewarded the confidence placed in him by winning by a head on the post from Red Apple, which beat Fridolin two lengths for second place. Red Apple and Leo Newell fought it out all through the last eighth, the latter outstaying the former. Fridolin showed improvement and finished fast. Ida V. made up much ground in the last quarter. Filibuster was well beaten when entering the last eighth. Fairbury displayed keen speed for seven and a half furlongs, but fell away badly beaten when the pinch came.

The track was in good shape and should no rain fall will be very fast today.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

The card at Harlem for this afternoon has hardly been excelled in point of interest by any offered locally this year. From start to finish each race holds out promise of racing of the most attractive character. When such horses as McChesney, Pink Coat, Bon Mot, Corrigan, Jiminez, Rose Tree, L'Etrienne, Money Muss, Barca, Au Revoir, Linguist, Nellie Waddell, Elsie L., Toah, Burnie Bunton, Lucien Appleby, Scarlet Lily and Marque appear on a day's card it is time to go a racing.

Officials of the Chicago Jockey Club will be at both Hawthorne and Harlem today to receive entries for Monday's purses at Hawthorne.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A Subscriber. The bookmaker was right. DAILY RACING FORM has always held that in hand-book betting added starters count for nothing, except inasmuch as they might affect the betting. In the case quoted by you the two added starters affected the betting materially, one being at 7 to 10 and the other 10 to 1, being 67 points of 105 that went to make up a 5 per cent. book. You should be paid 7 to 5 and the backer of Monte Carlo for place 1 to 2.

J. J. B., Chicago. The rules of the Western Jockey Club provide that in races not exceeding $500 to the winning horse, jockeys shall receive $15 for a winning and $5 for a losing mount. In other races, in the absence of a special agreement, $25 for a winning and $10 for a losing mount. These rules govern racing at Chicago and all other western tracks.

Freshe, Chicago. In both cases your wagers were drawn.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

James Clare, for twenty-five years superintendent of the Brighton Beach track, died at 10 o'clock Monday night. He had a carbuncle cut recently and blood poisoning, which set in, caused his death. He was 54 years old and leaves a widow, three sons and a daughter. Mr. Clare was born at the old Jerome Park racetrack, of which he was superintendent for years. He was a brother-in-law of John J. Hyland, the trainer for August Belmont, and was one of the best known and most popular men on the turf.

J. B. Haggin has decided not to sell his entire racing stable, after all. The sale had been fixed for Friday, but Mr. Haggin had it announced Tuesday that he had changed his mind. Instead of selling out the millionaire turfman has engaged Jack Joyner to train for him in future and will turn his stable over to him immediately. Joyner signed to train for Sydney Paget some time ago, and his engagement by Mr. Haggin confirms the story that Mr. Paget and Mr. Haggin have formed some sort of a racing partnership.

John A. Drake's Savable, winner of the Futurity, will not race again this year. Trainer Enoch Wishard arrived at this conclusion several days ago. Savable developed lameness after finishing in front in the big $30,000 stake and has not been able to indulge in hard work since. It was for this reason that Drake decided that it would be unwise to start Savable in a special sweepstakes for two-year-olds in which he would probably have met Whitney & Duryea's Irish Lad and Acefull. Savable will be sent to Lexington, Ky., together with a carload of yearlings owned by Drake, the yearlings to be broken by the noted Dan O'Brien. Savable's lameness is not deemed serious, being due to a slight wrench and Drake says he will win next year's American Derby.

Winner—B. f. by Kantaka—Queenie (trained by C. Davis). Went to post at 2:30. At post 4 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Fleeing Venus, crossed at the start, came from a long way back, and, finishing strongly, was easily best. Sweet Nell must be above the average and drew away from the others strongly right at the end. Meddling Mary, another promising filly, appeared to be the winner when a furlong out and should improve. Miladi Love failed to stay, probably due to pacemaking in the face of a strong wind. Florite finished strongly. Futurita loomed up strongly a furlong out, but failed to stay. Marion Etta and Fair Lass were going well at the end. Hymettus was away badly and eased up in the last furlong and could have been closer up. Scratched—34976 Pride of Galore, 110; 34883 Orabel, 110; 34943 Medal, 110; 34883 Witfull, 110. Fleeing Venus, show, 3 to 1. Sweet Nell, show, 20 to 1. Meddling Mary, show, 5 to 1. Hymettus, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Clifford—Thrilling (trained by J. Fitzsimmons). Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Rocky broke flatfooted, raced around the field on the first turn, forced the pace and drew away in the last quarter with ease. He outclassed the field and is in rare form. Grail, unexpectedly improved, closed a big gap and finished fast. Potente is uncertain and was under a drive early to keep up. Brandy Smash, a non-stayer, except perhaps in mud, ran extra well, and held on longer than usual. Satire, away poorly, closed up ground. Cornwall closed a big gap from a bad start. Ben Howard favors soft going or a grass course. Drummond had no chance at the start or with her bad jockey. Maltster is strictly a mud-lark. Scratched—34887 Dr. Barlow, 108; (34399) Jim Clark, 105; 34794 Boaster, 102; 34632 Rappenecker, 100; 34917 Miss Buttermilk, 99; 34917 Gibson Light, 99; 34917 Rightaway, 93; 28912 The Black Scot, 93; 34737 Past. 91; 34690 Choate, 85; 34944 May J., 84. Rocky, show, 3 to 1. Grail, show, 10 to 1. Potente, show, 7 to 10.

35006 THIRD RACE—6 1-2 Furlongs. (On Turf). 2-year-olds. Allowances. The Golden Rod Stakes. $1,500 added. Net value to winner, $2,100.

Added starter. Winner—B. c. by Inspector B.—Pansy Blossom (trained by W. P. Burch). Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Sergeant broke flatfooted and lost much ground in the first quarter, but with clear sailing rapidly overhauled the leaders and, racing wide on the turn, went to the front cauterizing when a furlong out and was much the best. Lady Josephine displayed brilliant form on the grass course, led at a terrific clip and tired at the end, but was easily second best. Incubator, which had been saved in the first half, finished strongly and was wearing Lady Josephine down at the end. Sailmaker, away in his stride, was quickly outrun, ran only a fair race and was outclassed. Athletoy is in bad form. Scratched—34853 Golden Maxim, 122; 34582 Examiner, 115; 34853 Mackey Dwyer, 110; 35004 Miladi Love, 97. Overweights—Lady Josephine, 1 pound; Incubator, 5. Sergeant, show, 1 to 3. THE PREAKNESS SALE.

The yearlings from James Galway's Preakness Stud, R. H. McCarter Potter's Pequest Stud and others, the property of various owners, were sold in the Fasig-Tipton company's paddocks at Sheephead Bay Monday. The bidding was lively and the prices were good. The bay colt by Belvidere-Crochet, a half brother to Crochet, a winner of twenty-seven races, went for the highest price, $2,200. C. R. Ellison outbidding H. M. Ziegler, H. McCarter and J. J. Marklein. The sale of the Potter lot caused some surprise, as it was announced a day or two ago that he had changed his mind about disposing of his yearlings. The best price in his lot was $1,050, given by H. M. Ziegler for the colt by Flambeau-Patience. Just before the sale came to a close auctioneer Easton announced that on Friday next the entire racing stable of J. B. Haggin would be sold at auction in the paddocks. The sales follow:

Winner—Ch. m. by Fonso—The Belle (trained by H. Harris).
Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Belle of Troy, in light and given a lucky start, forced the pace throughout and drew clear in the last furlong, winning going away. Ethics, very fit and improved over his recent previous journey, came on at the end with a rush. Douro, apparently beaten when a furlong out, came again very strongly and is in his best form. Advance Guard, nearly left, closed an immense gap, but was repeatedly run into hopeless pockets, and in the stretch was forced to pull up and had no chance with the ride. Huntress was outclassed and is not as good as the was at Saratoga. Himself set the pace for a mile and then quit badly, swerving over into Advance Guard and destroying his chances. Rossignol was all but left, but ran up into the field in the first quarter.
Scratched—34944 Bar Le Duc, 92; 35005 Potente, 87.

Winner—B. f. by Lamplighter—Elise (trained by E. L. Graves).
Went to post at 4:30. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second the same. Stamping Ground, skillfully and patiently ridden, made good with an impressive stretch run and was best. Flora Pomona closed up much ground and drew out at the end very strongly. The Referee displayed a high order of speed and held on with surprising gameness. Orloff went well, but had scant chance with his bad jockey. Clorita and Stuyve forced the pace to the stretch and tired. The first named is not at present as good as formerly. The latter was probably short. Examiner is improving.

Winner—B. c. by Halma—Bracegirdle (trained by J. E. Madden).
Went to post at 4:55. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. The Rival was lucky, trailed the pacemakers and wore them down in the stretch. He appeared like coming away from them when a furlong out, but was tiring right at the end and barely lasted long enough. His Eminence was best and ran a fine race, but was used up in racing after Articulate. The latter set a fast pace, tired at the end of a mile and a quarter and was unequal to the weight concession imposed on him. Arden was a good horse for a quarter of a mile.
Scratched—35007 Advance Guard, 130; 34946 Dixieline, 101.

TODAY TODAY

we have three grand specials with odds ranging from 3 to 10 to 1.

Horse racing is too uncertain for us to guarantee anything but barring accidents every one of these three good things should win their races in a canter.

The good thing, Leo Newell at 3 to 1, delivered the goods for our clients yesterday. If you miss us today you miss the opportunity of the year.

TERMS $1 DAILY; $4 ANY SIX DAYS.

Delivered to any city address before 12 o'clock. Wired at 10 a.m. For sale at news stands southeast and northwest corners Clark and Madison Sts.

Lyman Hay, 3-1, Leo Newell, 3-1,

WERE THE WINNERS OUR PATRONS RECEIVED FRIDAY.

Saturday at Harlem First Race 12 to 1 Plunge for the Limit Bet.

This good thing has improved twenty pounds since its last race, worked three-quarters of a mile in 1:14 without an effort and is positively the best good thing of the year. Nothing but an accident will stop this good thing from winning in a common canter. Whether you are a winner or a loser you cannot afford to miss this grand chance to win big money with small capital.

OLDEST, SAFEST, MOST RELIABLE TURF BUREAU IN THE WEST.

What we advertise is absolutely reliable and correct. Try us a day or a week and be convinced.

Form Letter on Harlem and Coney Island, Printed, Ready at 9 a. m.

TODAY 6 to 1 SHOT

This one will be cut loose to win today's race, and you should not fail to get this one. I also have information on a 5 to 1 shot winner at Sheephead Bay and a 3 to 1 shot at St. Louis.

Today's Special Sheet, Price $1.00.

Yesterday we gave the following horses: Lyman Hay, Rag Tag, Scotch Plaid, Philo, all place bets. My extra special, Silurian, ran second at 5 and 3-2.

DO YOU WANT TO GET NEXT

TO A 50 TO 1 SHOT WINNER?

This one will be ready to win within six days and will be uncorked for the largest coup of the season. If you are a loser this is an opportunity that don't come up every day. Send me your name and address and I will convince you.

Winner—B. c. by Margrave—Regalia (trained by J. T. Stewart).
Went to post at 2:45. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Rag Tag easily outran in the first half, moved up fast in the last quarter and easily wore down Georgie and Rubus. Rubus ran to her best form, but tired perceptibly when challenged by the winner. Georgie, off flying, ran in much improved form and just lasted long enough to finish third. Headwater's race was too bad to be true. He tired unaccountably in the last eighth. Cute showed a flash of early speed.
Overweights—Rubus, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Midlothian—Mottle (trained by T. Licalzi).
Went to post at 3:10. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Mac Gyle moved up fast next to the inside rail in the last quarter and finished strongly, going away at the end. Scotch Plaid faltered in the last sixteenth struggle and just lasted long enough to get second place. He was cut off badly by Mac Gyle when turning for home, losing several lengths. For this interference Mac Gyle was disqualified. Scotch Plaid being placed first, Silurian second and Rasselas third. Silurian finished strongly and was gradually wearing Scotch Plaid down at the end. Rasselas ran a good race and bears watching. Limelight tired fast when the pinch came. Little Elkin finished with a great rush.
Captain Gaines was cut off many times during the race.
Scratched—(34912) Ed Adack, 109.
Overweights—Limelight, 1 pound.

Winner—B. c. by Octopus—Ignoramus (trained by C. E. Waters).
Went to post at 3:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a canter; second driving. Dr. Stephens carried his impost in good style and ran a surprising race, showing much improvement over his poor effort of the day before. He showed keen speed throughout and won as his rider pleased. Major Dixon tired under punishment in the last eighth. Searcher finished fast and was gradually wearing down Major Dixon in the closing strides. Callant ran well for six furlongs and the same may be said of Albert Enright.
Scratched—34624 Flying Torpedo, 112.

Time, 25½, 48½, 1:14½.

Winner—Br. f, by The Commoner—Feronica (trained by A. Turney).
Went to post at 3:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second all out. Maud Gonne saved ground at the home turn, caught the leaders tiring in the run home and was going away at the end. Snark showed a lot of speed and raced Sevoy into submission in the first half. Both the last named came very wide into the home stretch. Sevoy hardly ran his race. Early Eve finished strongly and ran in much improved form. Sevoy ran under the name of Syrlin, by which name he is registered with the Jockey Club.

Scratched—(34928) Shrine, 88.

Overweights—Sir Tom Tiddler, 1 pound.

No show betting on first three.

35019 FOURTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. g, by Bolero—Jenny Yates (trained by J. Robertson).
Went to post at 4:12. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. McWilliams was under restraint for the first half, then moved up and caught Irish Jewel when rounding the far turn and shook him off without much effort in the run home. Lone Fisherman finished very strongly and was wearing the winner down at the end. Irish Jewel was used up in setting the pace and quit. Throw out Banish's race. He can do better.

Scratched—(34957) Benckart, 109; (34902) Bounteous, 104.

No show betting on first four.

Winner—B. c, by Emperor of Norfolk—Atalanta II. (trained by W. J. Speirs).
Went to post at 4:45. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Americano outlasted his company, opened up a winning gap in the first half and was eased up in the run home. Pathos raced Rosanco to defeat in going to the stretch turn, but was hustled along at the end to stall off All Souls. The latter finished strongly. He was very sore when going to the post.

Scratched—(34963) Sir Gallant, 110; (34923) Oro Viva, 107.

Winner—Br. or blk. f, by Wagner—Fabocia (trained by T. P. Hayes).
Went to post at 5:14. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Great Star was quickest to get going and opened up a winning gap in the first half, but was tiring at the end and was doing her best to stall off Loone. The latter came with a rush in the last eighth, was wearing the winner down and would have won in a few more strides. Baronet hung on more gamely than usual. This was the best race he has shown in months. Jack McGinn quit when the pinch came.

Scratched—(34930) Heroics, 101.

Great Star, show, 3 to 2. Loone, show, out. Baronet, show, 2 to 1. Outburst, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 25½, 514, 1:05.

Winner—Ch. f, by Preston-panes—Amount (trained by D. Lamasney).

Went to post at 3:06. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Begone came with a rush in the last eighth and caught Eddie T. tiring. The latter set a fast early pace, but was well spent after going a half mile. Hindoo Prince, favored by the going and lucky at the start, ran in improved form. Bodell, off badly, lost ground by taking the longest way, but finished strongly. Duke Dashaway made up much ground from a poor beginning.

Scratched—(3471 C. F. Cook, 110; (349 2 Florence H., 102; (34780) Mayne, 102; (34783) Friday, 102.

Time, 25½, 51 1:11.

Winner—Br. f, by Aintree—Claret (trained by J. Harding).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Our Jessie in the going was much the best, caught Albula in the stretch run and outgamed him at the end. Albula showed the most early speed, but failed to stay when called on strongly. Almanzo was a contender throughout and ran to her form. Sardine was always outpaced and seemed to labor in the going. Crisscross quit badly at the end after showing an early flash. Prince Light was never a contender.

Scratched—(34875) Annu, 105; (34962) Spud Caldwell, 105; (34962) Babe Hewitt, 100; (34931) Zeriba, 100.
